Multiple Sclerosis and Urological Issues

Monday November 29, 2021
8:00 PM - 9:30 PM ET

Many folks living with MS rarely get the opportunity to discuss urologic issues - whether related to incontinence or sexual function. But if you attend our virtual chat support groups, you'll know the topic comes up often.

AnCan, The Digmans, and MS4MS figured it was time to throw a spotlight on these unspoken matters. We invited renowned urologist, Dr. Rachel Rubin to openly address the subject.

Dr. Rubin frequently speaks on the topic of incontinence and sexual function and is known for her compassion not to mention expertise.

Please join us for a presentation followed by Q&A.
